

Mind Control: A Guide to Waking the World

With the restraints of political correctness, we are all being deceived into conforming to nonsensical ideologies, which are brought on by nothing more than greed and an unquenchable lust for power from such factions known as the Bilderberg Group; the super rich, the true owners of this world who are leading us all into a slave driven, poverty state. Mind Control: A Guide to Waking the World is a book that deals with varying subject matter without restraint. From religion and politics, governmental issues, false charities and the current penal system, it is in this book that we will investigate these matters and many more so that we may all learn how to fight back and expose the lies that are leading our world astray.
