

Owl Summer: A true story, mostly (Grannie Kate)

The swamp is burning.....danger! The animal kingdom, led by Woodpecker, is preparing for the arrival of birds and animal escaping a raging swamp fire. This has happened before and the animal kingdom knows it must be ready to help those animal forced from their homes. Woodpecker leads the effort, but he is worried about the human family living in the area. Will they know that their help is needed also? Remembering the past, the human knows and will be ready. As they prepare for the animals they know will come, they tell their grandson, AJ, about the last time the swamp burned and they were the rescue area for the Owl family. The grandparents fell in love with the Owls that summer and they, along with AJ, hope they will return this tie. Will they? Will the Owls return?
