

LunARK: Season One

LunARK The End is Only Beginning For the Bell family, life on the moon is everything. They eat, sleep and breathe in the containment bubbles that shield them from the harsh ravages of space. They have jobs, school, lives like any other family on Earth except they're not on Earth. Earth is the motherland. Home to their food, air and supplies, along with the rest of humanity. One night they watch as Earth starts to die. Thrilling science fiction from Guy Incognito, LunARK will leave you breathless until the final page. Alone On the Moon as the Earth Erupts in Color Above You: WHAT WOULD YOU DO?
