

BabyTalk

Jose; his wife, Maria; and their new baby share their home with Grandpa Garcia. Except for the babys constant chatter, it had been a quiet home. That was until the night sky was filled with stars that moved like a swarm of locusts. A hostile race of aliens had journeyed to the planet, and their arrival would surely mark the end of the quiet life Jose and his family lived. In fact, this invasion could mark the end of the entire world. Jose hoped the invasion would pass him and his family by, but his hopes were dashed when a terrible banging was heard at their front door. The nightmare was about to enter his home, and there was nothing he could do to stop it.
