

Sewing a Friendship 4. No More Trouble with My Parents. Monkey Faces

People are afraid to show and pursue their most special dreams because they feel like nobody cares and nobody appreciates, even their own family. Sokron, Meeka, Nina, Jonsy, Kiki and Aya each take responsibility for one aspect of the up-coming Monkey Day Festival with a message for moms and dads. This story will make you realize how it could affect your relationship with the people around you. No More Trouble With My Parents. Monkey Faces is written by 11-year old talented author and illustrator, Natalie Tinti. This last book of the Sewing a Friendship series reveals the enigma of living a happy life, will touch your heart and make you believe in the power of positivity.
