

The Spirit Tree

High in the Colorado Mountains, a wise old pine tree grew that loved to sing. It guided and protected its forest friends. When Spirit Trees community is threatened, the wise old tree must find a way to keep the positive spirit of the forest alive, despite changes forced upon those living on The Hill. You taught us to sing about love. You showed us to stand and be brave. You lifted our spirit when we were down, As you showed us not to fear change. ~Forest Friends This story is in tribute to our forests.
