

Reptile Flu: A story about communication (Im a Great Little Kid)

Kamal tries everything to avoid his school trip to the live reptile exhibit, but nothing works. His fear of being teased is almost as big as his fear of reptiles. Finally, in desperation, he communicates in a way everyone understands. From the Im A Great Little Kid series, developed by the BOOST Child Abuse Prevention & Intervention Center to teach kids communication, self-esteem-building and other important skills.
