

Who Can Open Michelangelos Seven Seals? [With Parchments] (Museum of Adventures)

Who Can Open Michelangelos Seven Seals? Thomas Brezina The latest tour through the Museum of Adventures draws young readers into a fast-paced interactive mystery as they try to solve the riddles of Michelangelos secret chamber. When the stone dragons on the rooftop of the Museum of Adventures menacingly spring to life, Mr. Tonatelli, the museum director, suspects Michelangelos secret chamber has been opened. Its up to readers to find the chambers seven seals in a magical journey that introduces them to the life and culture of sixteenth-century Italy. As the readers explore a quarry of Carrara marble, visit Michelangelos studio, and eavesdrop on conversations about the controversial artist, they will need to decipher a variety of clues. This exploration of the Renaissance masters art is so much fun that young readers wont even realize theyre learning. Thomas Brezina is the author of numerous internationally bestselling childrens books, including Who Can Crack the the Leonardo da Vinci Code? and Who Will Find Vincents Treasury of Colors? (both by Prestel). His more than four hundred books have been translated into 32 languages. He lives in Vienna and London.
