

Missing (Crime Cats) (Volume 1)

***Silver Medal -- Preteen Mystery, 2016 Literary Classics Book Awards***Cats are vanishing all over the neighborhood, but Jonas Shurmann doesn't care. He thinks cats are spoiled brats who don't appreciate anything people do for them. Jonas has bigger problems in his life: the ridiculous-looking chicken costume he has to wear to his class Halloween party, working at the vets office after school, and his math book getting thrown into the yard of a haunted house. Those are real problems! At least that's what Jonas thinks, until he discovers he can hear cats talk. Through his newfound power, Jonas befriends two cat detectives, CatBob and Neil Higgins, and together the trio sets out on a pulse-pounding adventure that leads them straight to the door of a haunted mansion that holds the chilling truth behind the disappearances. Crime Cats has been recommended by Columbus Parent magazine and made Columbus Metropolitan Library's 2015 Summer Reading list. The series is a favorite for parents and children to enjoy together, and an excellent choice for elementary school teachers and librarians. (Ages 5-12)*** CRIME CATS IS A PROGRESSIVE SERIES***Collect the books in order:MissingThe Dusenbury CurseThe Deadly ScarabTBA (Winter 2016)-----
--PRAISE FOR CRIME CATS:Crime Cats: Missing is recommended for home and school libraries and has earned the Literary Classics Seal of Approval.
--Literary Classics Awards & ReviewsHighly recommended as a gift for young cat lovers, and for public and school library children's fiction collections!
--Children's Bookwatch...a rollicking good adventure/mystery that will appeal to kids and adults alike. --PopCult Blog This was a great read!! (4 out of 5 stars) --Bring On the Books Blog Almost every single day I have at least one request for your books!

They are never on the shelves! When one is returned it is automatically given to the next student on a hold request. --Tammy Arndt, Librarian, St. Michaels School in Worthington, Ohio
Crime Cats: Missing provides a much needed genre for an age group of children who have limited, interesting books to read. It is a mystery with an element of scary that children love to read. Including cats as characters is another aspect that appeals to young elementary aged students. This is the start of a great series that includes historical facts about the Columbus area. Students will love the adventure. Adults will enjoy the historical facts. Looking forward to the 3rd book in the series. Keep them coming! --Jacquie Schmittauer, Library Media Specialist has served 27 years with Worthington Schools
