

Animals Have Feelings, Too!: Exploring Emotions from A to Z

Filled with humor and whimsical illustrations, this enchanting and educational A to Z guide takes young readers on a journey through the alphabet with a lovable Labrador retriever named Sandy, who shows kids that animals and people share many of the same feelings. From A is for Affectionate to Z is for Zonked, Animals Have Feelings, Too! helps children to understand and express their feelings and to treat animals with kindness and respect. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Karen Lee Stevens is a Certified Humane Education Specialist and the founder and president of All for Animals, a nonprofit, humane education and literacy organization in Santa Barbara, California. From the time she was three years old and her mom read Three Little Kittens to her, Karen has been fascinated by animals and the written word. This is her first childrens book. EDITORIAL REVIEWS: I believe children have a natural inclination toward animals, which grows stronger when it is nourished. Introducing kids to books like Animals Have Feelings, Too! will surely help them create a world where empathy for all sentient beings becomes a way of life. Wayne Pacelle, President and CEO, The Humane Society of the United States.
