

Spiritual Poems From higher worlds Number one: number one (Volume 1)

This is a book of Spiritual poems that are different to many other poems you might read for they have come into my mind from another world many call Spirit World but I have come to know it by the name my Star family and all others in their world call it The Sublime this covers everywhere other than Earth. One thing must be understood about these words. I don't sit to think what to write. I have psychic abilities very different to other psychics and it is these abilities that allow me to do what I can do. When I write I am writing words that come into my head in the form of thoughts. They communicate with me by thought transference. The words within these poems inspired me and were a great help right from the start of a Spiritual Journey that I found I could go on. They helped me to understand where I was coming from. The man I use to be and how I saw myself as I went through my change. They also helped me to see and understand the world around me in a very different way to how it used to see it, and this is still very much the same way for me, twenty years on. The poems carry a Truth that is seen by those in this other world and I have found many of them to be quite an eye opener and gave me food for thought that caused me to reflect quite often on what I was thinking and doing at the time for they fitted so well. There are two books on spiritual poems and one book on Prophecies and many more books to come as Diaries about my amazing changes and spiritual growth.
