

Cats and Kittens (WOW! All About Animals)

WOW Me! Books are written to help children find out about the world around them. In the All About Animals Series we explore the world of animals. Giving children lots of facts and information. Questions at the end of each chapter help children remember what they have read. For children 4 - 8 who want lots of pictures, but more information about our fascinating world. An ideal book to read and share with younger children, older children will enjoy reading on their own. Over 2,000 words, 28+ pictures. In All About Cats and Kittens you can find out - How old a kitten is when it first opens its eyes. Why cats love to play. What cats like to eat. See how a mother cat carries her kittens around. All these questions and more are answered in this book all about cats. Great pictures and information for young children. Simple sentences allow more advanced readers to find out on their own, while younger readers may need some help. A glossary at the back of each book helps children understand words they may not have come across before.
