

LunARK: Season One

The End is Only the Beginning For the Bell family, life on the moon is everything. They eat, sleep and breathe in the containment bubbles that protect them from the harsh ravages of space. They have jobs, school, lives just like any other family on Earth except they're not on Earth. Earth is the motherland. Earth is where food and air and supplies come from. And one night, as they watch, Earth begins to die. A thrilling new tale of science fiction from author Guy Incognito, LunARK will keep you breathless at the edge of your seat until the very last page.
