

from darkness, Into the Light: Book 2 (Inspired thoughts and poetry from God)

We are all born in sin, whether rich or poor. This life, in truth, is lead by our Father in Heaven. But, we are given choices, once we are able to know right from wrong. Babies are beautiful, when they are little and loving and have not grown accustomed to likes and dislikes. When they feel loved and nurtured, they respond the same. As we grow, we learn, to love or to hate. To forgive or hold grudges. God wants us to be childlike, again. Loving and caring for each other, and putting others before ourselves should be our quest. To be a servant, is to be humble. Give honor to Jesus, and His Holy Spirit, who watches over us each day and night. Until you realize that this life is a test, you will never know true joy, true love, or have a peace in your heart that is, otherwise, unimaginable. To pass this test you need Faith in knowing that Gods love is always with you. He wants to help to clear you of your past, your worries, and whatever holds your heart in check. Open your heart. Open your eyes. Open your ears, to that still small voice. It is always there trying to lead you to the path God has for you. To be a servant, to know His Will for you, can bring you great peace and joy. It will not be easy, but as long as you put your life in His Hands, He will provide for you. You may feel lost at times, rejected, unloved. But, He is always there to give you Peace, even in trials. May you be blessed, and live forever in His Grace.
